CEFS 601
MARRIAGE AND FAMILY COUNSELING I

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course considers the dynamics of marriage and family relationships from a systems perspective. The emphasis is on understanding family and other systems theories, the structure and function of marriage, various aspects of the marital relationship and family systems, and models of family and systemic interventions. Considerations from a historical perspective are presented along with current developments within marriage and family systemic models.

RATIONALE
This course is designed to cover the numerous and varied marriage and family theories as well as the history of marriage and family therapy. The information in this course is designed to equip counselor trainees for practice and to successfully complete the licensure exam.

CEFS 601 is a required course in the 48- and 60-hour licensure programs and is intended to introduce the student to the concept and philosophy of marriage and family therapy. The student will be required to understand the systems philosophy and six major theoretical frameworks within the marriage and family therapy field. The student will understand such core content areas as: marriage and family history, key theoretical figures, ethics and legal matters, counseling issues, some techniques, current trends, and future themes. This is the first marriage and family course; thus, it is designed to teach foundational materials necessary to pass state licensure examinations. For a more in-depth and deeper level of understanding, demonstration, and skill development, the CEFS 602 course may be taken when offered.

Method of Instruction: This 8 week course is delivered in an online format, with Blackboard® as the primary instructional delivery method. Students complete one module per week over the duration of the course.

Mission and Vision of the Center for Counseling & Family Studies

Liberty University seeks to change the world by graduating students of competence, character, and wisdom, who model a grace-filled community and engage the larger culture. As a community of scholars and professionals who embrace a broad Christian worldview we in the Center for Counseling and Family Studies are committed to developing therapists who are competent clinicians and professionals, able to evaluate and apply personal and professional values to the practice of psychotherapy, and respectful of individuals and families and the cultural contexts that shape them.

I. PREREQUISITE
For information regarding prerequisites for this course, please refer to the Academic Course Catalog.
II. REQUIRED RESOURCE PURCHASE

Click on the following link to view the required resource(s) for the term in which you are registered: http://bookstore.mbsdirect.net/liberty.htm

III. ADDITIONAL MATERIALS FOR LEARNING

- A. Computer with basic audio/video equipment
- B. Internet access (broadband recommended)
- C. Blackboard recommended browsers
- D. Microsoft Word
- E. GenoPro Software

The student will need this software to complete his/her Family Genogram Project. A university license for free downloads has been purchased for the CEFS 601 and COUN 504 student. The student will use the address below to download the software to his/her laptop or desktop computer:

GenoPro Software

Do not download the tree trial form the home page entrance to GenoPro, but use the .exe link found behind this blue hyperlink. This is a school license that has been purchased for all students taking this course.

GenoPro is a Windows platform software, but the student can run GenoPro on his/her Macintosh. However, the student will need special software. The minimal software requirements are Windows for Mac and Parallels or VMware Fusion. If the student has an old Mac, he/she can run GenoPro on Virtual PC. For complete directions on how to accomplish this, see the link below:

V. COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND ASSIGNMENTS

A. Textbook readings and lecture presentations (MLO: A, B, C, D, E, F, H, K)
   See Appendix A.

B. Course Requirements Checklist
   After reading the Course Syllabus and Student Expectations, the student will complete the related checklist found in Module/Week 1.

C. Group Discussion Board Forums (6)
   For this collaborative discussion board, the instructor will place the student into a group at the beginning of the course. Each group will be assigned based on alphabetically listed last names. The student will complete 6 Group Discussion Board Forums throughout this course. The student is required to create a thread in response to the provided prompt for each forum. Each thread must be at least 500 words and demonstrate course-related knowledge. In addition to the thread, the student is required to reply to 1 classmate’s thread. Each reply must be at least 400 words. Each reply must cite at least 1 source. These discussion board activities are designed to allow the student to discuss, articulate, analyze, and integrate the various aspects of marriage and family counseling as well as learn how faith can be integrated within counseling (MLO: A, C, D, F, G, H, K, L). See Appendix B.

D. Family Genogram Project
   The student will use the GenoPro software and the McGoldrick et al. textbook to prepare a family genogram of at least 3 generations of his/her family system. The student will also write a 5-page paper in current APA format analyzing his/her genogram (MLO: C, D, E, F, G, I, L). See Appendix C.

E. Family Counseling Approach Research Paper
   The student will write a research paper/formal literature review on 1 of the specific approaches to family counseling. The research portion of the paper must be at least 6 pages in current APA format and must use a minimum of 12

C. Dual Relationship

The faculty is responsible to interact with counseling students in a supervisory capacity/role. As such, faculty may provide students professional principles, guidance, and recommendations as it relates to the context of the student-client setting. The faculty is responsible to avoid dual relationships with students such as entering a student-counselor or student-pastor relationship. Thus, the faculty does not provide personal counseling addressing student personal problems. If a faculty member perceives that a student is in need of personal or professional counseling, then that faculty member will recommend that the student pursue either pastoral or professional assistance from a counselor in their community.
D. Limits of Confidentiality
In the event of a student’s disclosure, either verbally or in writing, of threat of serious or foreseeable harm to self or others, abuse or neglect of a minor, elderly or disabled person, or current involvement in criminal activity, the faculty, staff, administrator, or supervisor will take immediate action. This action may include, but is not limited to, immediate notification of appropriate state law enforcement or social services personnel, emergency contacts, and notification of the appropriate program chair or online dean. The incident and action taken will become part of the student’s permanent record.

E. Notice of Non-Discrimination
Liberty University does not engage in unlawful discrimination or harassment because of race, color, ancestry, religion, age, sex, national origin, pregnancy or childbirth, disability or military veteran status in its educational programs and activities. Liberty University maintains its Christian character and reserves its right to discriminate on the basis of religion to the extent that applicable law respects its right to act in furtherance of its religious objectives. The following persons have been designated to coordinate Liberty University’s compliance with certain anti-discrimination laws: Coordinator of LU Online Disability Academic Support at (434) 592-5417 or luoodas@liberty.edu; Director of Disability Academic Support (Residential) at (434) 582-2159 or odas@liberty.edu; Title IX Coordinator at (434) 582-8948 or TitleIX@liberty.edu.

F. Disability Assistance
Students with a documented disability may contact the Liberty University Online Office of Disability Academic Support (ODAS) at luoodas@liberty.edu to make arrangements for academic accommodations. Further information can be found at www.liberty.edu/disabilitiesupport.
