HLTH 553
GRANT ACQUISITION AND MANAGEMENT

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course acquaints students with the “soft” money world of private and public grants, promotes the development of grant writing skills and identifies the practical issues of managing a grant once acquired.

RATIONALE
Many employers, especially those in public health and healthcare delivery systems, rely to some degree upon philanthropy. The purpose of this course is to teach basic “grantmanship” terminology and skills as well as organizational grant management principles.

I. PREREQUISITE
For information regarding prerequisites for this course, please refer to the Academic Course Catalog.

II. REQUIRED RESOURCE PURCHASE
Click on the following link to view the required resource(s) for the term in which you are registered: http://bookstore.mbsdirect.net/liberty.htm

III. ADDITIONAL MATERIALS FOR LEARNING
A. Computer with basic audio/video output equipment
B. Internet access (broadband recommended)
C. Blackboard recommended browsers
D. Microsoft Office
IV. Measurable Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

A. Determine if an organization is eligible to apply for grants.
B. Distinguish the difference between public and private grant-making entities.
C. Differentiate the 10 major categories of grant requests.
D. Produce a 5–10-page grant proposal.
E. Describe the steps for successfully managing a grant once it is obtained.
F. Recall the guiding principles and key concepts used by grant managers.
G. Identify the major financial reporting issues in managing grants.
H. Evaluate ethical responsibilities to GOD and others when spending grant funds.

V. Course Requirements and Assignments

A. Textbook readings and lecture presentations

B. Course Requirements Checklist

   After reading the Syllabus and Student Expectations, the student will complete the related checklist found in Module/Week 1.

C. Discussion Board Forums (3)

   There are 2 Discussion Board Forums throughout the course. Discussion Boards are collaborative learning experiences. Therefore, the student will post a thread to the module/week’s discussion topic and then reply to at least 2 classmates’ threads in the same module/week.

D. Investigative Report

   The student will investigate 2 grant information data reservoirs: the Federal Register and the Foundation Center, one public and the other private, designed to inform organizations about acquiring grant money. The student will then write a 3–5-page report with citations.

E. Grant Proposal

   The student will write a grant proposal for an actual or fictitious non-profit organization. The proposal is broken into 8 manageable items. The instructions for each item are provided in Blackboard.

   - Item 1: Identify a 501 (c) (3) Organization [i.e. Organizational Data]
   - Item 2: Statement of Need
   - Item 3: Grant Objectives
   - Item 4: Evaluation Data
   - Item 5: Grant Budget
   - Item 6: Foundation Profiles
   - Item 7: Executive Summary
   - Item 8: Selling the Organization
F. Case Study Term Paper
   The student will develop a paper based on a grants management case study and will have the opportunity to display personal ethics and the ability to write professionally.

G. Grant Terminology Examination
   This exam will cover grant terminology. The exam consists of 40 terms that must be matched to the appropriate definitions.

H. Module/Week 6 Quiz
   This quiz consists of 10 true/false questions covering modules/weeks 5 and 6.
