COURSE SYLLABUS

MUSC 510
FOUNDATIONS OF MUSIC EDUCATION

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course provides an overview to the foundational principles, philosophies, and practices in music education. Topics emphasized are: purposes of school music; students as music learners; content and structure of school music programs; and music teacher knowledge and skills. Identification of personal qualities and professional competencies of excellent music teachers will also be discussed.

RATIONALE
As music educators, it is important to understand the underlying principles and different philosophical approaches proposed over the past fifty years. Two main currents in music education are: Aesthetic Music Education and Praxial Music Education. Students will learn about the proponents and critics of these positions and determine how to mediate between these perspectives in order to address the educational needs of music students from pre-K through the graduate level.
