COURSE SYLLABUS

PACO 835
PREMARITAL AND MARITAL ISSUES IN PASTORAL COUNSELING

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course provides an in-depth study of premarital counseling as well as marital distress and dissolution, marriage theory, intervention strategies, and factors central to marital renewal, stability, growth, and health.

RATIONALE
As a basis for their work, pastors and counselors should have a thorough understanding of premarital and marital counseling theories and their relevance for guiding the therapeutic process. In addition to understanding core theoretical principles, pastors and counselors need to appreciate contributions from various theoretical approaches to the actual practice of counseling. This understanding serves to heighten counselor effectiveness in formulating effective treatment strategies and in aiding in the delivery of powerful interventions in an efficient and timely manner.

I. PREREQUISITE

IV. MEASURABLE LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:
A. Explain the contemporary issues addressed within marriage.
B. Analyze major theoretical models in marital therapy and how they relate to pastoral counseling.
C. Appraise pastoral counseling and its applicability in the context of marriage.
D. Construct a program for pastoral counseling that reinforces the biblical framework for marriage.

E. Analyze the nature and characteristics of dysfunctional marriages.

F. Assess the impact a dysfunctional marriage has on its members and society in general.

V. Course Requirements and Assignments

A. Textbook readings and lecture presentations/notes

B. Course Requirements Checklist

   After reading the Course Syllabus and Student Expectations, the student will complete the related checklist found in Module/Week 1.

C. Discussion Board Forums

   Discussion boards are collaborative learning experiences. Therefore, the student will complete 2 discussion forums related to topics referenced in the texts providing opportunities for exploration, evaluation, and further development of key concepts related to the course material. Each discussion board thread must be at least 400 words and each reply must be at least 150 words. This assignment meets learning outcomes A, B, C, D, E, & F.

D. Reading Reflection Blogs

   The Reading Reflection Blogs will assist students in identifying major and significant thematic elements from the reading, and help to formulate a response to the reading with understanding and/or questions. The collected material from all blog posts will enhance the understanding and application of information/knowledge for the entire class. This assignment meets learning outcomes A, B, C, E, and F.

E. Initial Understanding of Pre-Marital and Marital Counseling:

   The Initial Understanding of Pre-Marital and Marital Counseling assignment will assist the student to conceptualize and identify elements of an understanding of Pre-Marital and Marital Counseling within a pastoral environment at the beginning of the course. This assignment is used as a comparison for the Informed Understanding of Pre-Marital and Marital Counseling assignment. The assignment must be at least 5 pages and follow current APA format. This assignment meets learning outcomes A, C, E, and F.

F. Informed Understanding of Pre-Marital and Marital Counseling:

   The Informed Understanding of Pre-Marital and Marital Counseling assignment will assist students to conceptualize, compose, and express an understanding of Pre-Marital and Marital Counseling within a pastoral ministry environment at the conclusion of the course informed by the materials and assignments of the course content. This assignment is used as a comparison to the Initial Understanding of Pre-Marital and Marital Counseling assignment. The paper must be at least 10 pages, follow current APA format, and reference the course texts, course material, and at least 5 other supporting sources. This assignment meets learning outcomes A, B, C, D, E, & F.

C. Tests/Exams

1. For timed tests/exams students are required to complete the exam within the assigned time. For students who exceed this time limit a penalty of 1 point may be deducted for each minute they exceed the assigned time limit.

2. Students must take the exam during the assigned module/week. Late submissions will be penalized at 5% per day, cumulative, with no test/exam being accepted seven (7) days after the original due date without written approval from the professor. Whenever possible, this approval must be sought prior to the test/exam due date.

E. Dual Relationship

The faculty is responsible to interact with counseling students in a supervisory capacity/role. As such, faculty may provide students professional principles, guidance, and recommendations as it relates to the context of the student-client setting. The faculty is responsible to avoid dual relationships with students such as entering a student-counselor or student-pastor relationship. Thus, the faculty does not provide personal counseling addressing student personal problems. If a faculty member perceives that a student is in need of personal or professional counseling, then that faculty member will recommend that the student pursue either pastoral or professional assistance from a counselor in their community.

F. Limits of Confidentiality

In the event of a student’s disclosure, either verbally or in writing, of threat of serious or foreseeable harm to self or others, abuse or neglect of a minor, elderly or disabled person, or current involvement in criminal activity, the faculty, staff, administrator, or supervisor will take immediate action. This action may include, but is not limited to, immediate notification of appropriate state law enforcement or social services personnel, emergency contacts, and notification of the appropriate program chair or online dean. The incident and action taken will become part of the student’s permanent record.

G. Disability Assistance

Students with a documented disability may contact Liberty University Online’s Office of Disability Academic Support (ODAS) at LUOODAS@liberty.edu to make arrangements for academic accommodations. Further information can be found at www.liberty.edu/disabilitysupport.
