D. Microsoft Office

IV. MEASURABLE LEARNING OUTCOMES
Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:
A. Describe key theories in industrial/organizational psychology.
B. Assess integral elements of organizational development.
C. Evaluate research related to personnel and management.
D. Explain factors impacting workplace attitudes.
E. Utilize biblical principles to interpret research in industrial/organizational psychology.

V. COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND ASSIGNMENTS

A. Assigned article readings and lecture presentations

B. Course Requirements Checklist

After reading the Course Syllabus and Student Expectations, the student will complete the related checklist found in Module/Week 1.

C. Discussion Board Forums (2)

Discussion boards are collaborative learning experiences. Therefore, the student is required to provide a thread in response to the provided prompt for each forum. Each thread must be at least 300 words, contain at least 1 peer-reviewed source citation in addition to the course textbook, and demonstrate course-related knowledge. In addition to the thread, the student is required to reply to 2 other classmates’ threads. Each reply must be at least 150 words and contain at least 1 peer-reviewed source citation in addition to the course textbook.

D. Reading Summaries (8)

The student will write a 2–3-page summary in current APA format that focuses on the assigned article reading for each module/week. Each summary must detail key concepts, ideas, and/or theories the student learned from the assigned reading material addressing what makes this information important to the I/O field. Each summary must also discuss whether any of the research read for the assigned module/week supports and/or is in conflict with biblical principles citing Scripture. Each article assigned in each module/week must be discussed in the summary and must be properly cited and referenced. Additional source support is encouraged but not required.

E. PowerPoint Presentation

The student will prepare an 8–10-slide PowerPoint presentation with citations and references presented in current APA format that focuses on what is known in the research about promoting employee health and well-being. The student will develop a narrated PowerPoint presentation that explains 4 research-based recommendations for improving employee health, safety, and/or wellbeing. The student should work to make the presentation visually attractive. The presentation must include at least 2 recommendations which support the topic from a biblical perspective. The presentation must include at least 4 scholarly peer-reviewed journal articles in addition to the Bible.

F. Research Paper

The student will write an 8–10-page research-based paper in current APA format that focuses on identifying what is known in the research about a special topic of the student’s choice in industrial/organizational psychology. The paper will include an analysis of the topic from a biblical perspective. The paper must include at least 5 scholarly peer-reviewed journal articles in addition to the Bible.
