YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT US

Liberty's been around since 1971, and our history is built on a legacy of unwavering faith.

You may have heard our motto — Training Champions for Christ — and that statement unites our students, faculty, and staff. Liberty students don't just become exceptional doctors, pilots, therapists, and preachers — they become exceptional doctors, pilots, therapists, and preachers who want to change the world. It's our goal to give you the resources and knowledge you need to fulfill God's calling on your life.

Adjusting to a new place can be intimidating at first, but the good news is we're a diverse bunch at Liberty. We can guarantee that you'll find your fit here. Extreme sports calling your name? On the hunt for the perfect reading nook? Looking for a trail to explore or mountain to climb? Whether you're an athlete, history buff, socialite, or a mix of all three, you're sure to find things that will inspire you during your time on campus.
